Hosts Its Nineteenth C.A.B.A. Ultimate Age Division High School Age Division World Series July 22 - 29, 2005

"The Greatest Show on Dirt"

Ed Carpenter High School Ultimate Age Division National Director

About our Tournament, the Euclid, Ohio Area will host the 18th annual High School Ultimate Age Division World Series of the Continental Amateur Baseball Association July 12 - 29, 2005. The World Series format will be four six team division round robin tournaments followed by two double elimination tournaments, one for the championship and one for 5th place.

Each year the Ultimate High School World Series draws College recruiters from over 100 colleges and scouts from virtually every Major League team to see our tournament. College scholarships granted to our players have grown into the 100's and over 10 million in signing bonus's have given to our players by the Major Leagues.

The talent level of this tournament is probably the best in the country for an event of this kind and each year it gets better. Outstanding players such as Alex Rodriguez now with the Seattle Mariners, Dan Wilson, Seattle Mariners, Johnny Damon, Kansas City Royals and numerous others have given our fans a glimpse of the future while playing in our tournament.

Large crowds are attracted to each host site to view these exciting games.

Community spirit is the essence of the Continental Amateur Baseball Association High School age Division Worlds Series.

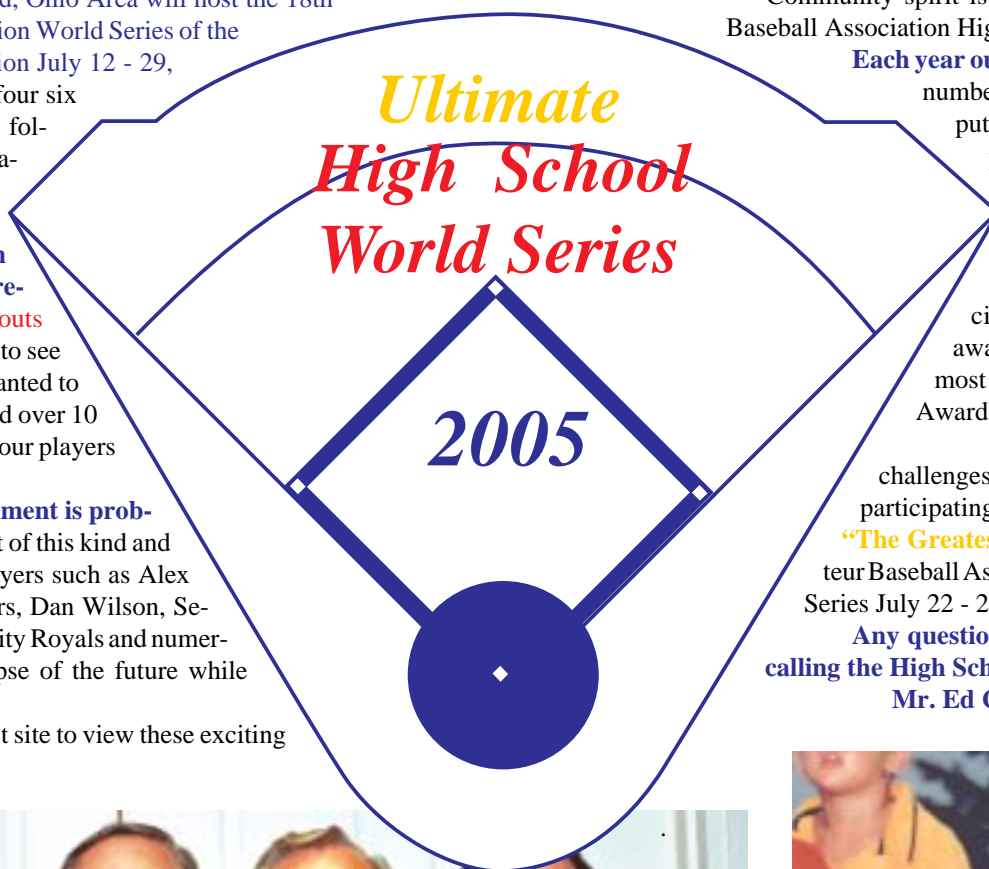

Each year our foundation of volunteers has grown in number putting forth the ever expanding effort of putting on a high caliber tournament for all the participants.

With the help of many many volunteers each venue raises the money necessary to put on this quality tournament. The Continental Amateur Baseball Association National Board of Directors has awarded the High School World Series the most prestigious "Tournament of Excellence Award", for the tenth consecutive year.

We look forward to 2005 and the challenges it brings and welcome all of the future participating teams to the Nations best tournament, "The Greatest Show On Dirt", the Continental Amateur Baseball Association High School Age Division World Series July 22 - 29, 2005.
